St Thomas, US Virgin islands is one of the most popular cruise ports in the Caribbean with its mix of exotic scenery and American amenities. Snorkel at Turtle Cove, partake in some of the best duty free and precious gem shopping anywhere, or take a boat to nearby St. John for a day of quiet, unspoiled beauty.

Aruba, Netherlands Antilles is a flat island with sugar-white beaches and truly crystal-clear turquoise waters. Shopping, dining and bar-hopping are all within walking distance of the pier or by hop-on-hop-off trolley. Or discover a paradise of marine life beneath the clear waters by snorkeling or diving at a shipwreck or visit clean, pristine Eagle Beach.

St. Kitts and Nevis is a two-island nation known for beautiful scenery and warm hospitality. The small harbor is walking distance to the town of Basseterre, along with the ferry to the island of Nevis. Or take the St. Kitts Railway on an train and bus combination tour of this beautiful island.

Willemstad, Curacao is one of the few urban UNESCO world heritage sites because the town itself is so gorgeous. Exploring further, visit the Hato Caves, where climbing down underground yields natural and historic wonders. Or see the Sea Aquarium to encounter the unique marine life of Curacao without getting wet.

Call or Email Johanna, our group cruise expert, to reserve your cabin. Only 10 balcony cabins are left at our low group rates, so call today, or send your questions to Marsha at rodenbeck5@yahoo.com
